Based on true events, Night Blind tells the story of a young Peace Corps volunteer seeking adventure in the Kingdom of Tonga in the 1970s. Fleeing her strict Midwestern upbringing and preacher father, Charlotte Thornton finds herself in a tropical paradise. But when her beautiful friend is murdered by another volunteer, the small community is shaken to its core, and so is Charlotte.

“Night Blind is a beautiful book.”

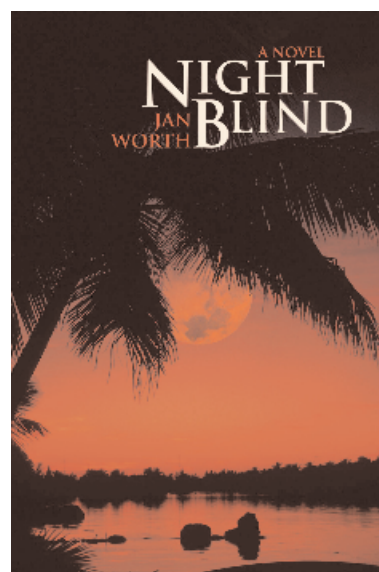

—Philip Weiss, The New York Observer’s MondoWeiss

“Readers who appreciate a fine read that leaves lasting impressions can concede Ms. Worth has borne a beautiful child in this, her first novel.”

—Arthur R. Vinsel, Random Lengths News

“Fact or fiction or a mixture of both, this is a very readable book.”

—Sharon Dirlam, PeaceCorpsWriters.org
